

Northwest Indiana Literacy Coalition, Inc.

Our organization is a not-for-profit volunteer group which promotes the cooperative exchange of services, information and ideas among literacy providers, community groups and interested individuals across seven counties.

2017 Sharon Ball Mini Grants

Northwest Indiana Literacy Coalition is offering a $200.00 mini-grant to literacy tutors and teachers to enhance or improve their tutoring or their classroom instruction of adult learners. Interested tutors or teachers should e-mail the following information to NWILC at friedrich11@sbcglobal.net. Direct questions to Linda Friedrich at 219-365-1070. Deadline: September 15, 2017.

Submit: Name of tutor or teacher, phone contact, address and e-mail address, literacy program affiliation, learning site and your request in a page or less specifying what you will do, with whom you will do it, and how you will use the $200.00.

Grant award winners will be announced on our website, nwiliteracy.wordpress.com. Please share this information with your volunteers and staff. Thank you for your support.

Matt Franklin, President, NWILC